Candy Collection for our Egg Hunt On Easter Morning

Please bring wrapped candy to the church office by Tuesday, March 31st. Please make sure the candy can fit in a regular size egg.

Thursday, April 2 at 6:00 pm we'll share a Seder Meal just as Jesus shared the meal with the 12 disciples that we call the Last Supper. This meal that includes children and adults of all ages will help us better understand the meaning of Jesus' sacrifice and atoning work and the importance of our Judeo-Christian heritage. Come join us!
